Ross Taylor Life Coach. There can come a point in life where you are called to take a stand for something greater. This can be experienced as emptiness, a lack of purpose or a deep knowing that something must change. This knowing can lead to a process of discovery that redefines who you are, what you stand for and how you will begin to relate anew in the world. A time of learning, how to firmly and confidently ask for what “you” want, and then, live your life from your rediscovered values and purpose in a way that once seemed unimaginable. 604.815.7089

Heather Royal is a classically trained Homeopath with a passion for homeopathy, healing and life. As a dedicated teacher and artist, Heather pursued a career in homeopathic medicine after witnessing its effectiveness with her own children and the variety of conditions it can heal. Classically trained at the Vancouver School of Homeopathy, Heather has also had the pleasure of studying with a variety of internationally renowned Homeopaths. Heather continues to enrich her practice with her intuitive nature and depth of knowledge and experience with children and families. 604.848.8197

Tara Alain has been fascinated with the nature of reality most of her life and it wasn't until a spiritual awakening in Peru five years ago that she got to experience the depth of it...and awaken her ability to heal. Since then, Tara has dedicated her time to meditation and energy healing of which she is trained in Reiki, Matrix Energetics, and CORRE. Tara's interest is in raising your vibration by transforming discordant patterns and bringing in new information so that you can move beyond the limitations of your created reality and live in alignment with who you really are. 604.898.4020

Kirsten Walter is a third year student of the Integrative Energy Healing program at Langara College in Vancouver. This program was designed to bridge the gap between eastern philosophies on healing and new scientific discoveries on mind/body health. Kirsten's passion lies in helping you discover what lies in the unconscious, bringing it forward to your conscious awareness so that transformation can take place on any or all levels of your being. She is also learning how to use the WHEE technique which works quickly and effectively with physical pain and emotional blockages. 604.898.0767

Julie d'Entremont Helping you to regain and maintain balance in your body. Julie works with each individual as a whole to help bring their body, mind and spirit back into balance. She is trained in massage, craniosacral therapy and myofascial release, as well as, being a student of osteopathy. She uses her knowledge of anatomy and physiology as well as various techniques during a treatment to help guide you back to a place of health, knowing that true Health always resides within you. 604.849.0352
